

Hope & Healing

FOR BROKEN MARRIAGES

Retreat master, Fr. Stephen Dyas, LC will lead you through a weekend of prayer and reflection that will give you the tools and the hope you need to move beyond the pain of broken relationships.

WHEN *October 21-23, 2022
Friday 5pm - Sunday 2pm*

WHERE *Ave Maria Retreat Center
27199 IL-1, Danville, IL 61834*

INCLUDED Daily Mass, Adoration, reflections, group sessions, confession and spiritual direction. Private room and six meals plus snacks/coffee/beverages.

COST $125/per person

BRING Casual, comfortable clothes (nicer for Mass if desired), towels, toiletries, walking shoes.

QUESTIONS Call Mary Timmons (217) 304-3098 or Karen DalPorto (708) 310-2964

DEPOSIT *Please send your $50 deposit by October 13th to hold your spot.
Send deposit to:*

Ave Maria Retreat Center
27199 IL-1, Danville, IL 61834

FR. STEPHEN DYAS, LC, was born on 7 January 1976, in a small town near Bally, PA, and raised in Reddick, IL. He is the third oldest of seven children – six boys and one girl. In 1989 he joined the Legion's High School Seminary, then known as Immaculate Conception Apostolic School.

After seminary years in Cheshire, CT, and Rome, he did internship in New Hampshire, Canada, and California. Fr. Stephen was ordained a priest on the 22 December 2007 at St. Mary Major Basilica in Rome.

Since his ordination to priesthood he has worked in France and Montreal, Canada, working with boys and serving as a spiritual director and retreat master to Regnum Christi members. He has worked in New York City in development for Regnum Christi and the Legionaries of Christ, and was also a chaplain for the Lumen Institute.

Both in Montreal and New York, Fr. Stephen was an associate priest in a few different parishes. He then again went back to France to work at Sacred Heart Parish in Bordeaux, France, and later to Switzerland to be chaplain of Le Chatelard, an all-girls boarding school run by the consecrated women of Regnum Christi.

He is now stationed in Chicago. Fr. Stephen loves being a priest, and loves the Bible, a variety of sports (in 2018 he ran the New York City Marathon) and working outside in the fresh air. He is excited about his new mission in Chicago!